DAY 01

CUSCO - KM 82 - LLACTAPATA - HUAYLLABAMBA

Hidden gems along the journey

The journey of a lifetime begins early in Cusco. Your vehicle will pick you up from your hotel and take you to kilometer 82 Piscacucho, the starting point of the legendary Inca Trail. Get ready! after a brief entrance, the adventure will start.

The hike will begin gently along a path that borders the Urubamba River, where you'll see agricultural fields and sacred mountains overlooking you along the way. Llactapata will be one of the first stops. This Inca agricultural center dominates the valley and is part of the vast Qhapac Ñan network.

The tour continues through the beautiful valleys of the Cusichaca River, you will have the opportunity to trace your steps with purpose and fill yourself with energy. As you continue along the path, you'll witness the gradual change in vegetation.

After several hours of hiking (approximately 6 to 7 hours) you will arrive at the picturesque town of Huayllabamba, where a comfortable campsite awaits you.

After enjoying a delicious dinner, you'll camp under a beautiful night sky.

You will enjoy stunning views along the way.

DAY 02

HUAYLLABAMBA – WARMIWAÑUSCA PASS – PACAYMAYO

The meeting with the sacred Apus

On this day, you'll have the opportunity to be close to the Sacred Apus.

After a delicious and nutritious breakfast at the Huayllabamba camp, get ready for the most challenging day! You will begin the upward hike, which for some is the most exciting day of the Inca Trail. As you ascend, the vegetation fades away, giving way to the imposing Apus, sacred ancestral spirits who will accompany you along the route.

Your efforts will be rewarded when you reach the highest point of the Inca Trail, the Warmiwañusca Pass.

At the Warimiwañusca Pass, you'll enjoy an irreplaceable landscape . At this point, you will have the opportunity to feel the sacred energy of the Apus and their blessing.

After a short rest, you will descend into the Pacaymayo Valley, where you can camp surrounded by mountains and nature. In this beautiful valley, our comfortable camp and a delicious dinner under the stars will be await for you.

DAY 03

PACAYMAYO – RUNKURAKAY –
SAYACMARCA – PUYAPATAMARCA –
WIÑAY WAYNA

The hidden wonders of the Andes

History, nature, and spirit connect on this day.

On this magical Inca Trail hike, you will hike through Runkurakay, an ancient semicircular shape. After visiting this ancestral place. You can also visit Sayacmarca, an archaeological site that seems to hang among the clouds; explore this place while immersing yourself in the energy of the Andes. Sayacmarca offers a view of sophisticated ancient Inca urbanism.

The trail will take you through cloud forests, stone tunnels, and dense, vibrant vegetation until you reach Puyupatamarca, a mystical town with ceremonial terraces. This is the most mystical place of the day.

As you walk the sacred trails, you'll discover hidden gems like Wiñay Wayna, the "eternally young" mountain.

Here you will rest at the foot of history, just hours from Machu Picchu. This journey isn't just a trip... it's a deep connection with the land, the culture, and yourself.
